

Improving IEQ in Relocatable Classrooms

This project will compare an indirect-direct evaporative cooler with a standard heat pump at two elementary school relocatable classrooms. The new system is expected to save energy and improve indoor environmental quality (IEQ).

Field test at a Modesto elementary school.